

Kythnos, Cyclades islands, Merihas

This typical Cyclades maisonette is located in Kythnos , an island with many peaceful beaches and perfectly structured houses.

It is a 2 level 100sqm. maisonette built in 2004, with unobstructed ,totally relaxing sea view to the port of the island, Merihas. Once we enter the complex , we enter the 1st floor where we meet the reception area, WC, the living room with kitchen and dinning table. Balcony doors with openings in the balcony (with pergola) the magnificent view. On the ground floor that communicates with the 1st floor with internal stairs we can find a small reception area, 3 bedrooms with wardrobes, and a full bathroom. The bedrooms communicate with the lower balcony from where we have the same beautiful view of the sea and the harbor. A "best value for money" house , ideal for countless hours of enjoying the magnificent scenery around.
