

Kea, Cyclades islands, Grykos

Part of a fine traditional Cycladic residential complex, this house is at the higher point and the sea view really takes your breath away.

The two-storey house is 78,5sqm with an internal staircase. On the first level, where the main entrance is, we find the living room with a fireplace, an open kitchen, w.c., a balcony and a front yard with a panoramic view to the Aegean sea. On the other level we find 2 bedrooms, a bathroom, a storage room and another rather spacious balcony. The 2 levels are also connected from the outside with a stone staircase while there is a totally owned and independent landscaped plot of 642sqm which includes space for at least 4 cars.
